and Wagner's crude attempts, were eclipsed in the work of one Gleason, who styles himself a "horse educator." A magnificent English stallion, fifteen hands high, whose owner said no one ever yet had been able to mount his back, was led in loose without harness and bridle. Gleason entered the pen with a whip. The horse looked surprised at the visitor and attempted to bite and kick him, but both efforts failed, and the whip snapped sharply about the hind legs of the animal. Gleason stood firmly on his feet, and repeatedly said "Come here." When the animal moved toward him, all was well; if he turned away, crack went the whalebone, and the stallion's feet shot into the air, only to get a couple more cuts. The butt of the whip went toward his nose when the horse behaved; the lash flew when he turned away. In three minutes, Gleason had the bear following him like a Gol.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY. Its Management Conspicuous for Liberality and Fairness.

ter-Flaxfail.

[Colton Daily Times.]
When we hear of the frequent strikes and troubles in the East on Jay Gould's railroads, we cannot but compare our Pacific coast system with them, and give credit to the managers of the Central Pacific. There has never yet been any trouble between the California railroads and their employes; and while there have in the past been numerous and well grounded complaints against the railroads here, we have never felt, as those dependent upon the Gould systems have, what railroad monopoly means. The Southern Pacific Company have the reputation over the whole land of paying their employes better and treating them more fairly than any other railroad in America; and much of this is unquestionably due to the efforts of Senator Stanford, who has the credit of heing one of the most liberal men on the Pacific coast; and to the further fact that all our railroad men have worked their way up from the lowest round of the ladpounds extra; of two or more, 10 pounds. One mile. cause the railroads have not treated us a well as we wanted to be treated, a comparison of California under the rule of the southern Pacific people and that of the sections dominated over by Jay Gould, will lead us to admire the fairness and liberality of our California railroads. How different the character of the two men, Stanford and Gould. Of the latter not one of his men can appear at the character. of his men can speak well. Termed the Napoleon of finance, he possesses all of Napoleon's ambition with his unscrupulousness. He would hesitate at no outrage to accomplish his ambitious projects, and will leave behind him an enormous fortune, an accursed name, a trail of ruined hopes, impoverished families and blasted homes. He does not travel over his own roads without a body-guard, and is hated and feared by all. Stanford has developed his wealth out of the country. He has made the settlement of the coast possible, is respected by his men, and welcomed wherever he goes as a friend. He has the highest position within the gift of the State of California, and he has not abused it. He has already prepared for the usage of his vast fortune for the benefit of the State, and regards it as a public trust to be returned to the public in the future. Surely when we compare the two men, the two systems they control, the C. P. R. R. mo-nopoly is not so bad after all, and there is more of good to us than of bad in its

INSUFFERABLE IMPUDENCE.

The hardihood of the new Chinese Minister, in brazening out a lie, is only paralleled by the eagerness with which the Eistern press snap at any grain of opportunity to misrepresent and insult the people of California. The matter of the reception of the Chinese Minister at San Francisco has been distorted by the pro-Chinese people out of all semblance of truth, and is made to do duty to an unmanly and ungenerous spirit.

To-day's dispatches detail from the lips of the spokesman of the embassy statements that demand a plain re-recital of the actual facts. Fortunately these facts are so clear as to be incontrovertible, and Collector Hager has, over his official signature, put them on record with such substantiatory testimony as to place them beyond and above dispute. In the light of these facts, it is submitted to any candid and fair intelligence, no matter what ideas it may entertain concerning Chinese immigration or restriction, or the rights that great injustice is done the custom striction Act was passed in conformity with the treaty with China, and is known to the Chinese Government and consented to by it, in so far that it has not protested against nor expressed dissatisfaction with it. The Act provides that Ministers and Embassadors from China shall be admitted to ports of the United States on presentaion of their credentials, which shall be accepted in lieu of the certificate of a right to land, required by the Act.

The Secretary of the Treasury sent to the Collector of the Port at San Francisco orders that, on the arrival of the new Minister, expected at some early date, the baggage and personal effects of the Minister and party should be passed without the usual customs inspection. That order contained no word of reference suite. It left all that to the formulæ of the law. A steamship arrived having on board a number of Chinese. Some of these claimed to be officials of the Empire in the suite of another, who claimed to be a certified Minister of China to the United States Government. The Surveyor of the laying the claim, did as he was by law bound to do, and asked for the credentials of identification. These were refused to him on the ground that they were addressed to the President of the United States, and must not be exposed until Washington was reached. The subordiperior, the Collector, and after a necessary delay of from half to three-quarters of an hour, the party was landed in violation of the law, and upon no other evidence of preter of the party and the passenger list of the ship. This fact of the call for credentials, refusal to produce them, and the landing without any evidence of official character being shown, is admitted in just so many words by the interpreter in the dispatches from Chicago this morning.

This is the whole story in a nut shell. Yet this Chinese official states to the Eastern press that the San Francisco Collector purposely delayed the party in order to please "a certain class of people in Calirnia." This understrapper thus assumes impugn the motives of a man a hundred ld his superior in intelligence and all sat goes to make a man; an accomplished rist; a citizen of unblemished reputation, gentleman by instinct and education, a ex-United States Senator, and an ficial who has discharged the many justs imposed upon him by the State and tion during a third of a century with more to the people and himself. It is inhiputed work on China, as surpassing all ther effrontery and meanness. Upon the test of this Chinese interpreter's ble, we may expect the Eastern property in the poople. There are hot-heads, alcontents and extremists here, as there are the lawless, the riotous and the dangerous classes at the East, but that Colector Hager delayed the Embassy to lease the prejudice of any one, no same fornia." It is unblushing impudence and Mongolian Illi cheek such as M. Huc describes in his admirable work on China, as surpassing all other effrontery and meanness. Upon the test of this Chinese interpreter's fable, we may expect the Eastern pro-Chinese press to fatten and vomit its bile upon this people. There are hot-heads, malcontents and extremists here, as there are the lawless, the riotous and the danlector Hager delayed the Embassy to Vanbokkelen, Chicago; Andrew Warren wife, St. Louis; Miss Wright, J. David Felconer, Esq.—DEAR SIR: The matter of certificates and labels proves to be more complicated than it first appeared. The Knights of Labor, Federated Trades and other labor organto arrive at a unanimous

Many men were in sympathy with a radical novement, but their business forbade. Eight-tenths of the business men of the ity were opposed to any radical method to get rid of the Chinese. He believed that the movement could never be carried out

xcept by the poor men who have nothing o lose. He did not think the time had ar rived to use the third clause of the boycott definition. He said it was no use to expect any aid from Congress. The men who were denounced as spotters were poor men who were giving their time to the work. One man had said he would shoot any man he caught spotting around his hop ranch. The speaker said he had but little of this world's goods, but he was willing to lose it f it was necessary to do so in order to rid | East without Chinese, and thought

Senator Routier said he was astonished stounded and at a loss to know the object of the resolution. He thought they had rganized a club for the purpose of ridding it this time in this manner would be a est men who are willing and anxious to work at any honest toil for almost any najority of the so-called "best citizens hame and an outrage. Old men and nd young men, married and single, old Murray, Dooley and Boyne. women and young women, wives and unor that and that alone they are called cialists. If that is socialism he was one zens" insisted upon resigning, let them do man. It is a lie. They say the hops cannot be gathered except by Chinese labor—that also is a lie. They will pick the fruit and the hops, not on account of their superior The rich

He remembered when he fed hogs for a iving; to-day he was a State Senator nd he did not know as he should be ashamed of either. He certainly was not ashamed of honest labor, however humble. White girls, plenty of them. could be obtained as house servants at $15 per monthcertainly no gentleman would ask them to labor for less. Don't talk about patience or putting things off for eight or ten years. That means putting it off for twenty years, it means submission. The day is comis almost here. Labor and capital and accord. "No Jay Gould for me. He is down now, and he will stay down forver. No best citizen for me. I am for the poor laborer, and shall stand for his ights and their maintenance." Judge Galloway said the motion was nade last evening on account of the third proposition in the boycott, and as that had een withdrawn he saw no occasion for

A. S. Hopkins defended the committee and replied at length to the strictures made by Senator Routier. He said the Senator should be the last man to find fault, as he had never taken enough interest in the movement to attend the meetings. The organization had done an immense amount of good. They were the first in the field. alled the State organization, and did more than any other toward securing a State of ganization They had established bureau, secured employment large number of men and women, boys and girls, and secured the displacement of a large number of Chinese. He briefly referred to the assault made upon himself and other members of the committee by the Boycotter, saying they were untrue, unwarranted, uncalled for, and had a tendency to undo much good work that had already been accomplished. Jost said that eight-tenths of the women n Sacramento were pro-Chinese. If they were patriotic, loyal and true, they would do their own work and set the Chinese house servants adrift. The Boycotter, in his udgment, was doing a grand and noble work. The men denominated as spotters and abused for their work were honest toilers, zealous in the cause. It takes a brave man even in time of war to make a spy, but we all recognize their indispensi-bility to a successful campaign. We have to work up a sentiment and make the patronage and employment of Chinese unpopular. If this committee is not in favor of doing this, then it were better for them to adjourn sine die, step down and out, and leave their unfinished work to others who will dare and do. H. Weinstock said if there was nothing that could be done within the law, then he certainly would favor the motion. If we can proceed and do any good, we should certainly do so. He claimed that much of the good that had been accomplished by the organization had been counteracted by other men, honest enough in their purpos but who were overzealous in their anxiety to accomplish too much in too short a time. The American people can be led but not driven. They can be persuaded to do most everything, but forced to do nothing. He doubted if the boycott could be made a success. He believed moral success, where the success we have the success. lieved moral suasion would accomplish more. He believed it to be the duty of every good citizen to dissuade his neighbors from employing Chinese. He did not be-lieve in force or threats, and if the committee could accomplish nothing except by adopting a policy of that kind, he believed cussion out of order. The Association was a body of several hundred citizens. If the be easily filled.

for finding so much fault with a committee of which he was a member, and the meet-ings of which he so seldom favored with his presence. He found some fault with the committee's report, and advocated more energetic work. The motion should be energetic work. The motion should be voted down. The anti-Chinese movement was a small ball in the beginning; it is rolling and growing, and soon will fall upon the coolies like a mighty avalanche. William Boyne was in favor of the motion. He said the people of the State, owing to the way the boycott was advocated, were opposed to it. This committee could have carried out a successful boycott in this city if let alone. He predicted that | B. & B. zens' Anti-Chinese Association at the the Chinese would remain, and that years hence there would be a war of races, when the stars and stripes would be upon one to talk of adjourning. The only seemed to be that the committee had done seemed to be that the committee had done too much. They had done more than all the other anti-Chinese clubs in the State, hence the fault finding and opposition. It is the only anti-Chinese club in the State that has done anything. He took the Secsympathy with us is a deficate matter. We have not credentials or passports; they knew that a certificate was needed, since they have heretofore issued and peddled them for coin; they deliberately and premeditatedly sent out the new Minister without entry credentials, for the express purpose of creating trouble. Their wanton neglect, the impudent refusal of the Minister to identify himself and his score of servants, all justify the inference that it was a premeditated insult. If there is any apology to be made it is due from China to the United States.

In the meantime, and since Collector Hager has violated the laws of the communication was temporarily that a certificate was needed, since they have not been able to arrive at a unanimous one have concluded to lay it before the State Executive and read from it a score of things that had been accomplished, and showed that it was the only club in the State that was materially aiding the State that was a premitive Committee would indorse. Second—Patronizing Chinese or purchasing the products of their labor. Fourth—Any resort to violence threats, intimidation or illega, methods."

Second—That we disapprove of the actions of those persons who have heretofore in this city attempted to inaugurate a system of boycotting threats.

Third—That we disapprove of the manner in which the newspaper called The Boycotter has been conducted, and announce to the people that this Association has never in any manner been responsible for the publication or management of said newspaper.

Fourth—That inasmuch as we are informed and believe that the business of selling fish and vegetables, the saloon business, and the cigar business can be easily conducted without the aid of Chinese, and that sufficient time ha mend all persons to hereafter patronize only those saloons, cigar stores, fish and vegetable dealers, who do not employ Chinese. Fifth—That we request all persons in Sacramento county to rid themselves as soon as possible of all connection with Chinese labor or products, because we deem it the duty of all the people to aid in the good work of ridding the State of the Chinese now here, and of preventing any more Chinese from coming to California.

Tucker replied that the bill was being considered by the committee. When a de-termination there was reached, the bill would be reported adversely or favorably. Reed suggested that the bill had been with the committee a long time, and it was a measure in which the country was much interested. Could the gentleman give no Tucker (dryly)-No other answer.

Bill. WASHINGTON, April 20th.-The House Foreign Affairs Committee to-day agreed to report the Morrow bill, with certain amendments, favorably. The committee strike out the twenty-year clause, the two-year clause, the passenger clause, and the clause requiring a photograph in a certificate. The ill is emasculated in accordance with the wishes of Secretary Bayard. As amended it is not satisfactory to the members of the Pacific coast delegation, and an effort will be made to have it change l in the House All the Democrats except Chairman Bel mont voted in favor of the Morrow bill and all the Republicans and Mr. Belmon

The Tariff Fight Growing Hotter. Washington, April 20th. — The tariff fight is getting hotter and hotter, and both sides are massing their forces for a grand contest of strength, which will come up when the motion is made to strike out the enacting clause of the bill. The recent | ntimation from the White House, that the cents; of 1882, 68 cents; of 1883, 63 cents; of 1881, 61 President would like to see some action taken to secure tariff reform, will doubtless have some effect upon the fate of the measure. Representative McAdoo, of New Jersey, a warm and close friend of Randall, in talking to-day as to whether the President had made any progress in securing converts for the bill, said that the situation was still in a nebulous condition, but perhaps a Postmaster or so thrown in the balance might have additional weight.

Has he changed his policy in regard to listening to advice from other people?"
"It seems so. I advised him to take advice from Congressmen, because they were sent here to represent the people, and were better prepared to understand the wants of certain localities. I think he has come to this conclusion, too."

The Republicans, with the exception of perhaps four or five, will vote solidly against the bill. Messrs. Nelson, Haight, White and Wakeman, all of Minnesota, who voted for the other bill, are here, an most probably will do so again. On the other hand, the following shows a list o Democrats who are with the Republicans. and will give them a majority: The entire Ohio delegation, including eleven Democrats, six out of eight Democrats in the Pennsylvania delegation, the excep-tions being Swope and Scott, three from New Jersey, seven from New York, includ ing Spriggs and Merriman, Findlay of Maryland, Snyder of West Virginia, Gay of Louisiana, and Henley of California. This makes thirty-one, and there is a probability of one more from each of the following States: West Virginia, Louisiana and Virginia. Capital Notes. Washington, April 20th —The Secretary of the Treasury this afternoon issued a call

Miss Francesca Hranuella, otherwise known as "The Silent Girl," died last week at St. Luke's Hospital, where for some time past she had been slowly wasting away in consumption. Her history is interesting, from the fact that that for the past seven years she maintained an absolute silence in consequence of a vow taken to remain perpetually dumb, because of a disappointment in love. Some of the lady's relatives having prevented the visits of a sea captain on whom she had centered her affections, she thenceforth resolved to speak to them

A short time ago I got in a profuse perspiration while preaching. Imprudently going home without my overcoat I lost the use of my voice, and the next day had a violent pain in my back, kidneys and chest. I could hardly breathe. You Have a Perfect Right,

You Have a Perfect Right, WHEN YOU DEMAND A BENSON'S Capcine Plaster of a druggist, to expect to receive one. Yet there are, we regret to say, a few druggist of the Cheap John variety who will try to persuade you to accept some worthless substitute with a similar sounding name, such as "Capsicin," "Capsicum," "Capsicine," "tc... prefixed sometimes with the name "Burton" or "Benton." Cheap John will offer you one of these wretched imitations for half the price of the genuine, as he can well afford to do, its real value being nothing, and its cost but little more. Benson's are the only porous plasters that can be depended upon to cure every silment subject to external treatment. They are prompt, sure and thorough. Protect yourself against deception by buying of reliable druggists only. The genuine bears the "Three Seals" trademark, and has the word "Capcine" cut in the center.

The Woodland Democrat makes the following report of the proceedings: The reports of the Grand President and other Grand officers were presented, an examination of which shows the Order to be in good hands, well managed, and in a prosperous condition. On the condition of he Order the Grand President says: While the past year has not been so pro-ific in the establishment of Parlors as your Grand President desired and expected, yet, considering the fact that the year has been one of "hard times," and that the section from which we expected the largest ncrease has, through stress of unfortunate circumstances, least augmented our Par-lors and membership, we may yet congrat-ulate ourselves upon our steady progress, the harmony and peace that has prevailed and the bright prospect that lies spread before us. There have been added 23 new Parlors, and from 2,900 our membership has swelled showing for our young fraternity. A ma-jority of the old Parlors have shown a steady growth, and the new Parlors have steady growth, and the new Parlors have added largely to their original charter The growth of the Order during the past year has been steady and healthy, there have been no mushroom Parlors established, and the enthusiasm, zeal and energy displayed by the new Parlors is of a character to add greatly to the fame and honor of the Native Sons. The balance in the Grand Treasury has increased from $2,500 o $4.400. Concerning the work of his office, the rand President further says: During the year I have visited, either at a regular meeting or on some festal occasion, the following Parlors: Hydraulic and Quartz, Auburn, Lincoln, Wheatland, the Parlors of San Francisco convened with Pacific, Rincon, San Jose, Sacramento, Sunset. At the beginning of my term I had hoped and expected to visit most of the Parlors of the State, but shortly after the close of the Grand Parlor new and pressing business relations came upon me, and most of the visits contemplated I was forced to forego. I certainly owe an apol-ogy to the Parlors in this respect, but it was from no lack of desire or interest in the Parlors that I did not visit them, but simply because oftentimes after I had made Totals... arrangements and fully expected to visit a Parlor, matters of a nature that could not put off would intervene. GRAND SECRETARY'S REPORT. An examination of the report discloses that the Parlors acquired during 1885, in the aggregate, 1,933 members, and lost 411, being a net gain of 1,522 during the year. The total membership January 1, 1886, Mission Parlor, No. 38, has the largest membership, her 213 membership exceeding that of California Parlor, No. 1, by one, and Sacramento is third with 165. ALBENTON, 4,023.

ALBENTON is a bright bay, without white, foaled April 14, 1883, bred by Leland Stanford, Palo Alto, Cal. He is 16 hands high, and has size, style and filmish. Was sired by Gen. Benton (the sire of six in the 2:30 list, and the sire of the fastest four-year-old in the world, Sally Benton, 2:1734). He is also the sire of Arab, that made a record last season of 2:174, and is now offered to be matched against any horse in the world.

The dam of Albenton is Abbie, by Almont (the sire of 32 in the 2:30 list), he by Alexander's Abdallah (the sire of Goldsmith Maid), second dam, Norma (the dam of Lucy Cuyler, one-half mile to wagon, 1:05, and a mile in 2:15½). She was by Alexander's Norma (the sire of Lula, 2:15, and May Queen, 2:20). Albenton has been handled but little, on account of his age and large size, but showed a quarter as a yearling close to a 2:40 gait, and received the first premium at the California State Fair, 1885, for the best two-year-old standard trotter, over colts by Sultan and other noted sires. Will make the season of 1886 at $40 for the season, limited to twenty approved mares. Mares not proving in foal can be returned the following season, free of charge, if he is still in my possession.
